Eastern AHEC opens new regional office at Elizabeth City State University

In late 2015, Eastern AHEC opened a new regional office housed in the Pharmacy Complex Building at Elizabeth City State University. This office will provide more concentrated healthcare workforce efforts in the 7 surrounding counties: Pasquotank, Camden, Currituck, Perquimans, Chowan, Gates and Hertford.

Dr. Lorrie Basnight, Executive Director of Eastern AHEC, commented, “Elizabeth City State University has been a great partner in establishing an Eastern AHEC office in the northeastern corner of North Carolina. Having an office and staff in Elizabeth City will allow us to more readily serve the area. We are particularly excited about supporting high school and college students who might consider a career in the health professions and then return to their home communities to practice. Our ultimate intention is to foster the health professions for all of the seven counties in that region of the state. The Duke Endowment grant is key to helping us realize this goal.”

Claire Mills has been named director of the Elizabeth City site and has begun working with a "partner coalition" to develop its offerings. The Elizabeth City site will offer local students the same type of continuing education credits they could receive at the Greenville site.

The Elizabeth City site is already at work in high schools through such programs as Youth Health Service Corps in Perquimans, Currituck and Hertford counties. Shamaree Cromartie, Student Services Coordinator, works with the service corps in undertaking service projects, many not tied to the medical field, that try to instill pride in students to help their community. The hope is to encourage students to pursue health care professions and practice locally because it’s easier to recruit doctors, nurses and others to communities they’re invested in.

Eastern AHEC received a $700,000 grant from The Duke Endowment to fund the establishment of the Elizabeth City Office. Based in Charlotte and established in 1924 by industrialist and philanthropist James B. Duke, The Duke Endowment is a private foundation that strengthens communities in North Carolina and South Carolina by nurturing children, promoting health, educating minds and enriching spirits. Since its founding, it has distributed more than $3.2 billion in total grants.

To find out more about how you can be involved with the Elizabeth City site, contact them at 252.335.4315.
