

LEVERAGING CULTURAL IDENTITY IN THE CONTEXT OF CLINICAL SUPERVISION

February 10 and 17, 2022

Provided via Live Webinar

This training is being provided in partnership with NC AHEC and UNC SSW.

About The Workshop

Cultural identity is a complex and multifaceted construct. This training will explore multicultural identity and ways that context creates inherent power dynamics. The clinical alliance includes actual and perceived power that while present, are frequently left unaddressed. This training will encourage us to deepen our therapeutic work by considering specific elements of identity affecting clients, supervisees, and ourselves.

This is a two-part workshop. You must attend both sessions to receive credit.

Objectives

- Present a model of multicultural supervision
- Explore the relevance of Intersectionality to understanding real or perceived power differentials
- Define at least five facets of cultural identity relevant to the clinical environment
- Identify at least two barriers and two strengths that influence cultural sensitivity

Target Audience

- Licensed Clinical Mental Health Counselors and Supervisors
- Psychologists
- Marriage and Family Therapists
- Licensed Clinical Addiction Specialists
- Certified Clinical Supervisors
- Social Workers
- All clinical supervisors
- All interested behavioral health professionals

Faculty

Dr. Carmen Crosby is a respected thought leader in the areas of diversity, inclusion, and trauma-specific ethical practice. Drawing from her training as a therapist, clinical supervisor, and researcher, her contributions to the field of trauma and violence highlight the importance of social equity and reflexive praxis. Her translational research connects the dots between intersectionality and cultural inclusion, current trends in evidence-based research and her desire to support individuals and organizations toward superior performance. Dr. Crosby approaches these difficult topics through curiosity, skill, and a self-effacing manner that is both practical and engaging. Dr. Crosby received her MSW from University of Michigan where she focused on Interpersonal Practice with Children, Youth, Families, and Society. She received her PhD from the University of North Carolina-Chapel Hill where she focused on the development, application, and evaluation of prevention research. Dr. Crosby is a trainer and independent consultant based in North Carolina.
