

KEY ISSUES IN ASSESSING AND TREATING SERIOUS MENTAL ILLNESS

September 29, 2022

The Education Center at Eastern AHEC
2600 W. Arlington Blvd.
Greenville, NC

About The Workshop

This workshop will teach skills for assessing and working with major mental illnesses such as schizophrenia, bipolar disorder, schizoaffective disorder, other psychotic disorders and severe depression. DSM-5 diagnostic criteria will be reviewed and discussed. Complications of diagnosing when there is co-existing substance use will also be examined. Participants will practice diagnosing cases and preparing comprehensive treatment plans that are person centered and encompass a holistic approach to individuals. The afternoon will focus on providing treatment and the various possible treatment approaches. Special attention will be given to issues regarding building and maintaining rapport, medication adherence, substance use, and handling crises.

Objectives

- List the diagnostic criteria for the major mental illnesses
- Explain the possible interactions between substance use and mental illness
- Prepare a treatment plan for a client with serious mental illness
- Describe the main treatment approaches for this population
- Examine approaches to crisis intervention, working with families and helping clients adhere to medications

Faculty

Marilyn Ghezzi, MSW, LCSW, is a clinical assistant professor at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill School of Social Work. Before joining the faculty in 2008, Ms. Ghezzi worked for 20 years as a clinical social worker in the public mental health system. She uses her practice experience and mental health expertise to enrich her teaching in the MSW program in courses that cover an array of mental health topics, including mental health theory and practice, group work, brief treatment, dialectical behavior therapy, and differential diagnosis. Ms. Ghezzi is also involved in research as a co-investigator on the Mental Health Specialty Probation study. Ms. Ghezzi has won numerous awards for her teaching, including recognition as the “Most Outstanding Faculty Member” by the social work graduating classes of 2013, 2014, 2017 and 2019. In addition, Ms. Ghezzi was awarded the 2017 Distinguished Teaching Award for Post-Baccalaureate Instruction — an honor given to only four professors each year who are selected from the entire UNC-Chapel Hill system.

This presenter is being supported through a partnership between the UNC-CH, School of Social Work and the NCAHEC Program.
